Southeast Leaders Retreat

The Southeast Leaders Retreat for churches in the Carolinas, Georgia and the Mid-South was held June 13 - 15 at Ridgecrest Conference Center in Black Mountain, North Carolina. With the theme, "Pass it On," more than 80 people came from more than 15 congregations to build unity, inspire and train each other.

- Vision was given for great ministry among singles.
- Campus ministries and teen ministries were strengthened.
- Exciting stories of growth were shared.
- News of amazing sacrifice was announced (the Fayetteville, NC, church with 120 members just gave a missions contribution of $93,000!).
- Training was given in counseling the weak, the timid and the uncommitted.
- The needs in the wake of Nashville's flood were presented and discussed.
- The importance of a deep walk with God was examined.
- Evangelists and elders and women's leaders had special time together with others in their situations.
- The Athens and North River churches announced they will together host the 2011 International Campus Ministry Conference (US East) in July 2011.
- Plans were made to launch a new SE Churches web site.

At one point in the retreat, Kevin Thompson from Athens led the song "There's a Sweet Sweet Spirit in this Place." That sums up the retreat in Black Mountain. There is a sweet spirit flowing through the churches of the Southeast. We are in a great family.
